

Faculty Teaching and Learning Commons: Grant Resources

If you want to win the game, you better understand the strategy!

The Grant Resources group focuses on tactics to obtain external grant funding. Topics include creating long-range research plans, effective searches for funding opportunities, persuasive grant writing, and even compelling budgets. We will discuss everything from small pilot projects to large multidisciplinary collaborations. Open to new and experienced participants.

Meetings: Typically the fourth Wednesday of each month at 3:00PM in the Faculty Center.

Fall schedule:

- August 27, 2014 - Why bother with grants?
- September 24, 2014 - Building credibility and setting a strategy
- October 29, 2014 - Find funding opportunities
- December 3, 2014 – Feasibility, resources and timelines

Spring schedule: (tentative)

- January 28, 2015 – Project overview/abstract/aims/goals
- February 25, 2015 – Peer review
- March 25, 2015 – Draft proposals
- April 22, 2015 – Budgets and logistics

Leadership:

- Aubrey Turner, Office of Sponsored Programs
- Julie Voorhees, Office of Research and Economic Devel.
- Valera Francis, Office of Sponsored Programs

Faculty Advisors:

- Paul Silvia, Psychology
- Natasha Brown, Nutrition

For more information, email aubrey.turner@uncg.edu OR jkvoorhe@uncg.edu
Registration: <https://workshops.uncg.edu> and select Office of Sponsored Programs